COUNCIL PLANS FOR 6,600 MORE HOMES

South Oxfordshire residents asked for their views

PLAYERS and coaching staff at London Welsh were given a break from their usual training regime to take part in a behind-the-scenes tour of RAF Brize Norton on Monday.

The squad members had a go at parachute training and were taken for a flight in the C-130 Hercules aircraft, as well as offering coaching to the Brize Buccaneers rugby side.

RESIDENTS in South Oxfordshire are being asked for their thoughts on a possible extra 6,600 homes being built in the district, on top of the 11,400 already planned as part of the council's Local Plan.

The district council has launched a consultation asking residents where they think the best locations for the extra housing would be.

It comes after the Oxfordshire Strategic Housing Market Assessment last year said that at least 3,600 more houses were needed in the district between now and 2031.

This is in addition to the 11,000 homes put forward in the district council's Local Plan.

And provision for an extra 3,000 houses may also need to be found to fill the unmet quota of Oxford City Council, who say they do not have space to build their allocation.

SODC has said it believes most of these houses should be in the Science Vale area around Didcot, and in the district's towns and larger villages.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Angie Paterson, SODC's cabinet member for planning policy, said: "The response to our initial consultation last summer has helped us draw up these more defined options.

"Local people clearly recognise the need for more housing.

"This is an additional phase of consultation to help us gather views on the best way of distributing the new houses."

Some of the larger villages in the district that are being considered for further development include Culham, Berinsfield, Benson and Cholsey.

But Philip Cross, district councillor for Berinsfield, said that the housing strategy for South Oxfordshire has been agreed and should be left as it is.

He said: "We set out a clear plan for the next 15 years and as far as I'm concerned that is entirely sufficient for the needs of the district.

Review demanded for 'confusing' roundabout

AN ABINGDON district councillor has called upon the county council to undertake a review of a 'confusing' roundabout after it was remodelled last year.

Jim Halliday's motion for Vale of White Horse District Council to request a thorough review into the Wootton Road roundabout from the county council was unanimously passed last Wednesday.

It comes after the roundabout was remodelled last April as part of efforts to make the junction safer for cyclists.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The entrances to the roundabout were narrowed, and the centre lane was paved to deter motorists from using it.

But Cllr Halliday, Liberal Democrat member for Abingdon Fitzharris, is concerned that the changes - particularly the paved lane in the middle - have made the roundabout confusing for drivers, which he said has led to an increased number of accidents there.

He said: "Drivers are clearly confused by it.

"We've asked the chief executive of the district council to write to the county council asking for the highways engineers to look at the roundabout again and change things.

"Hopefully this will reduce the queues and make it clearer for people to know what they are doing."

But county council spokesman Dominic Llewellyn-Jones said that the authority wasn't planning a review any time soon.

He said: "We are not currently considering any kind of review, although as standard after any scheme we always monitor it for a couple of years at least in order to determine if it's safe and working how we had hoped.

"The accident record since it was done is only two relatively minor accidents which happened soon after the roundabout opened, and we haven't had anything since then so we don't consider it to be a particular issue."

He continued: "Obviously we'll monitor it but we don't feel there's anything out of the ordinary there."

Grand Designs of Bicester to appear on TV

A NEW six-part television series featuring Grand Designs presenter Kevin McCloud following the building of homes at Graven Hill in Bicester has been commissioned.

'My Grand Design' will document the first 10 self-build homes at the site, following the construction process from beginning to end.

The site, owned by Cherwell District Council, is set to become the largest self-build scheme in the UK, with planning consent approved for 1,900 homes.

"For decades, self-build in Britain has been the preserve of the relatively wealthy and empowered," said Kevin.

"What's happening at Cherwell is something else – a self-build revolution that will make the custom-designed home accessible to everyone."

Barry Wood, leader of Cherwell District Council, said: "Kevin McCloud has become a household name for his championing of self-build.

"We are delighted to welcome him to Graven Hill to document the delivery of the first 10 homes.

"The commissioning of this show will not only put Bicester and Graven Hill on the map, but will capture the first properties ever to be built on this important and historic site."

As well as the homes, a primary school, employment space, pub/restaurant and local shops will also be built on the site.

The first house plots on site are expected to be made available later in the year.

Two arrested after spate of robberies reported in Didcot

TWO men from Didcot have been arrested following a series of robberies in the town last Friday.

Four incidents were recorded between 3.30am and 11pm, with police believing them all to be linked.

The first happened in Basil Hill Road as a man was walking near the sewage works, when he was approached by two men who threatened him with a knife and demanded money.

The second robbery was outside the shops in Lostock Place at 2.15pm, when the two men again threatened someone with a knife, this time a 44-year-old woman.

Another robbery was reported at the same location at 10.25pm, when a 27-year-old woman was approached by a man with a knife.

And the final incident took place in Avon Way at 11pm, with the victim a 29-year-old woman.

Money was taken during the first two robberies.

The two men – aged 29 and 20 – were arrested on suspicion of robbery, and are currently in police custody.

Anyone with further information about the incidents is asked to contact police on the 101 non-emergency number.

£48m homes deal is agreed for Barton

A MULTI-MILLION pound deal which will see Oxford City Council buy 354 homes to use for social housing on Barton Park has been signed.

The council is set to spend £47.9million on the properties, with the first work due to begin on the 885-home Barton development next month.

It is part of the authority's plans to create more affordable housing in the city, after Oxford was revealed to have the highest average house prices in the UK outside of London in last year's Centre for Cities report.

And the council has said the new affordable homes – which will make up 40 per cent of the development - are designed to be "spacious and energy efficient".

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Scott Seamons, the city council's board member for housing and estate regeneration, said: "Delivering new high quality affordable housing is the top priority for the city council.

"Over 950 new council homes alone are planned in the next decade.

"This agreement is an important step in realising those plans as it moves us closer to getting the flagship Barton development underway."

The deal has been agreed between the council and property developer Grosvenor Developments Limited.

It comes after the council approved a reserved matters planning application from the developers earlier this month, which paved the way for work to start on the site.

Construction of the first homes will start later in the year, with the initial social housing units being transferred to the council from late 2016.

Alex Robinson, development manager at Grosvenor Developments, said: "This deal is an important step in providing much needed new affordable housing in Oxford.

"Following the reserved matters approval this month, we hope to start work in the spring with the first houses on site in early 2016."

As well as housing, the development also includes plans for a primary school, supermarket, and community facilities including sports pitches, a park and public squares.

Last week city council leader Bob Price said he hoped that all building work on the site would be completed by the early part of 2018.

He added that residents may be able to start moving in to the new homes around this time next year.

The news comes as residents moved into the first three homes in Leiden Road, Wood Farm, as part of the council's £17m Affordable Homes programme to deliver 113 affordable homes across the city.

The programme's remaining 110 homes will be at Bradlands in Marston, Cardinal Close in Littlemore, Bury Knowle Depot in Headington and Priory Road in Minchery Farm.

Consultation launched for South Oxon homes shortfall

"The core strategy has been laid out and agreed by everybody and we should stick to it."

In Berinsfield, the council has said that expansion plans might lead to a new secondary school being built in the village.

Cllr Cross added: "It all depends if there is a need [for a school. There's no point if there aren't sufficient people to attend it."

Six consultation events have been planned by the council, taking place in Benson, Cholsey, Crowmarsh, Goring, Nettlebed and Chinnor next month.

The consultation itself closes on April 2.

Petition calls on county council to start divesting

CAMPAIGN group Fossil Free Oxfordshire handed over a 1,200 signature petition to Oxfordshire County Council leader Ian Hudspeth on Tuesday, urging the authority to end its investments in fossil fuel companies.

The petition is calling on the council to freeze any new investments in fossil fuels, and divest from all fossil fuel-related funds within five years.

Al Chisholm of Fossil Free Oxfordshire said: "Oxford City Council has taken a strong lead by including fossil fuel companies amongst the exclusions in its ethical investment policy.

"Now we want Oxfordshire County Council to move nearly £50million away from fossil fuel companies and put it into investments that are less financially risky and better for the planet."

It comes after a protest was held in Oxford city centre last week against all fossil fuel investments.

More than 100 people gathered in Bonn Square and outside the Radcliffe Camera on February 14 calling for divestment from fossil fuel companies.

Marcus Mabberley, spokesman for the county council, said: "The Oxfordshire Pension Fund Committee manages the pension scheme on behalf of over 100 employers across the county, including the county and city councils.

"The committee determined that there was no clear financial justification for divesting in fossil fuel companies currently."

District councils agree not to raise their tax rate share

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

RESIDENTS in South Oxfordshire, West Oxfordshire, Cherwell and Vale of White Horse will not see their district council tax bills rise, after all four agreed their budgets in the past week.

Those living in South Oxfordshire will see their bills drop by three per cent to £111.24, while the other three councils agreed to freeze their rates at the current level.

It comes after Oxford City Council and Oxfordshire County Council both elected to put their rates up by 1.99 per cent last week - the maximum possible without having to hold a referendum.

Vale of White Horse councillors agreed their budget last Wednesday to keep their annual tax bills at £116.69.

Also agreed was £500,000 for improvements to Abingdon's Abbey Meadow, and £154,000 to be used for the refurbishment of the play areas in Wantage Memorial Park and Pye Street in Faringdon.

Matthew Barber, leader of the council, said: "While we can't control how other authorities set their own rates I hope people appreciate that they will not be asked to pay more for the services we provide."

South Oxfordshire District Council met last Thursday to agree their budget, which as well as the drop in tax rates, also saw £1.5million allocated to support community projects across the district.

Also approved was £250,000 to put towards flood prevention, including money for work at Moulsford to avoid a repeat of the sewerage flooding from 2014.

SODC leader John Cotton said: "There are very few councils who have been able to reduce their share of the council tax year on year in the way that we have."

Cherwell District Council met on Monday, where they decided to keep their rates the same at £123.50.

Ken Atack, Cherwell's lead member for finance, said: "In times of austerity we are tasked with providing the same services to our residents but on a decreasing budget, and are proud that we do so without passing on the charge to residents."

And West Oxfordshire District Council met yesterday where they approved the recommendation to keep their rates at £81.63.

Capital projects also approved included £184,300 for the deployment of superfast broadband, and £200,000 for the council's community grants fund.

Tesco pulls out of Marston

A PLANNED Tesco store in Marston will now not go ahead, it was revealed last week.

The supermarket giant had wanted to build a store on Old Marston Road – the site of the former Old Friars pub - but confirmed that this will not go ahead.

Campaigners had been battling Tesco's plans for the site ever since they were first announced in 2009, with concerns raised about the impact on business it could have on local shops.

Mick Haines, Oxford City Councillor for Marston, said: "It's been a long battle, and it's a real good result for us.

"I would like to see a Wetherspoons pub there [instead] because we've lost so many pubs in the area recently.

"Other than that, I would like to see social housing in there as it is very important for the local people who have lived here for years."

Fflur Sheppard, spokesman for Tesco, said: "We are sorry to confirm that we will not be able to deliver the investment that we had intended for this site."

She added: "Our priority now is to work with the local planning authority and key stakeholders over the coming weeks to find alternative uses for the site's future."

Cone attack

OXFORD: Two teenagers and a man have been arrested after a 35-year-old was chased and had traffic cones thrown at him in Cowley Road last Thursday.

It happened at around 3pm near the City Arms pub.

One of the offenders was carrying an axe and three men were then seen driving a maroon transit van towards the victim, who escaped uninjured.

Investigating officer Det Sgt Kevin Parsons of Force CID said: "I would like to reassure the public that this was not a random attack.

"However I would be grateful to hear from anyone who has any information about the offence."

The three men arrested, aged 17, 19 and 27 and all from Oxford, have been released on bail until March 19.

Head retiring

ABINGDON: Headteacher of Abingdon School, Felicity Lusk, has announced that she will be retiring at the end of August 2016.

Miss Lusk will have been at the school for six years.

Jail for paedophile after 27 offences on children

A GROVE paedophile has been jailed for more than six years for 27 offences related to possessing, making and distributing indecent images of children and voyeurism.

Andrew Marshall Bayliss, of The Willows, was sentenced to six years and eight months behind bars at Oxford Crown Court last Thursday.

The 41-year-old pleaded guilty to the offences involving boys aged four to 13, which took place between January 1, 2008 and September 25, 2010.

The court heard that Bayliss would access the 'dark web' to access the images.

He would then distribute them across various paedophile websites.

Bayliss also posed as a young girl and incited children to commit sexual acts, footage of which he recorded.

In addition Bayliss filmed himself changing a seven-year-old boy's clothes, footage of a naked child being dried by another man, and of two boys changing while on holiday in France in 2010.

Det Con Simon Beaton, from the Paedophile Online Investigation Team, described Bayliss' actions as "abhorrent".

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

He said: "Bayliss has been sentenced for offences involving indecent images of children that he obtained from and distributed to the internet.

"We never lose sight that each of these images represents a child victim and a crime which had occurred against that child.

"Bayliss went on to engage with children via webcam, and committed offences of voyeurism and sexual activity with a child.

"His actions and the nature of the images he collected are abhorrent, and the sentence reflects the serious nature of the offences committed by Bayliss."

In total, Bayliss was convicted of 17 counts of possessing, making and distributing indecent images of children, six of causing or inciting a child to engage in a sexual act, two of sexual activity with a child and two of voyeurism.

As well as the custodial sentence, Bayliss was also given an extended license period of five years and four months.

Have your say on how Vale spends levy money

VALE of White Horse District Council is urging residents to submit their comments on how they think money paid by developers should be used to improve infrastructure in the district.

The council is set to launch its Community Infrastructure Levy, which will see developers charged for every square metre of additional floor space in a new development.

Charges of up to £260 per square metre are being proposed by the council.

Money raised will fund projects such as schools, transport, flood defences, and community, leisure and health facilities.

And the council has launched a consultation for residents to put forward their views on which projects they would like to see money spent on.

Mike Murray, the council's cabinet member for planning policy, said: "We're determined to do all we can to make sure that new housing coming to the Vale is properly supported with the right infrastructure."

The consultation is running until March 23. To take part, go to whitehorsedc.gov.uk/infrastructure.

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes - not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Josh Florey feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and Josh is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Josh a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Immigration centre expansion delayed

A VOTE on controversial plans to expand the Campsfield House immigration detention centre near Kidlington have been deferred.

Cherwell District Council's planning committee had been due to make a decision last night on whether to grant permission to the expansion plans put forward by the Home Office.

The committee had been recommended to approve the expansion by officers.

But following a legal challenge, councillors voted to delay their decision, with a final outcome now expected when the committee is next scheduled to meet on March 19.

Michael Gibbard, the council's lead member for planning, said: "It was deferred because there was a suggestion that the need for expansion had not been properly assessed, or that the analysis for possible alternative sites had been fully explored.

"There's nothing sinister about the deferral other than this legal representation came at a very late stage, so it was not possible to digest in the time we had."

Plans had been put forward that would see a new building constructed to the west of the current facility to accommodate an extra 290 detainees, and bring Campsfield House's capacity to 566.

A two-storey staff facility and new car park would also be built for the additional 100 staff that would be employed as a result of the expansion.

Lawyers representing campaign group Stop Campsfield Expansion submitted the legal challenge to the council on Tuesday, saying that the recommendation was "plainly wrong in law".

They stated this was because the report had advised councillors not to consider relevant evidence.

Bill MacKeith, of the Stop Campsfield Expansion group, said: "This backs up what we've been saying from the beginning.

"Councillors must consider all the evidence and make up their own minds whether there is a need to detain more migrants.

"Since the Home Office's own figures confirm that they are releasing more and more detainees without taking further action against them, we are confident councillors will eventually decide that there is no 'need'."

A statement released by the Home Office said: "Immigration removal centres play an important role in our work to remove people who have no right to remain in the UK."

It continued: "It is right that we have the adequate facilities in place."

New homes

BICESTER: Plans for a new development of 45 homes in Chesterton were approved by Cherwell District Council's planning committee last Thursday.

Outline planning permission has been granted to build the homes at The Paddocks.

Thirty-five per cent of the homes will be affordable, while public open space will also be included in the development.

Currying favour with Oxford's Lord Mayor

CAKE and an Indian takeaway aren't normally associated with each other.

But an Oxford furniture store has decided to combine the two by presenting the city's mayor Mohammed Abbasi with a cake in the shape of a curry, rice and poppadoms.

Oak Furniture Land commissioned the confectionary creation, of which everything on the plate is edible, ahead of the Lord Mayor's fundraising supper next month.

The cake will then be auctioned off at the supper to raise money for the mayor's charities Restore, which supports people with mental health issues, and Unlimited Oxfordshire, for those with physical disabilities.

Cllr Abbasi said: "The cake donation is a wonderful gesture and I'm pleased to be accepting it from the store manager.

"I am holding a curry fundraising supper to raise funds for the Lord Mayor's charities and the cake will take centre stage at the fundraising evening."

The store manager, Michael Watts, commented: "I was delighted to present the cake donation to the Lord Mayor of Oxford."

Second phase plans for sports site to go on show

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

PLANS for the second phase of the Bicester Sports Village development will go on show in the town next Tuesday.

Cherwell District Council is looking to build a two-storey pavilion at the site to accompany the first phase of grass pitches and a cycling/jogging track, which was completed last year.

And artist's impressions, floorplans and drawings of the development are set to be unveiled at the Sainsbury's store in Pioneer Square on March 3.

George Reynolds, deputy leader of Cherwell District Council, said: "Bicester is set to expand significantly in the future.

"We recognise the importance of ensuring that along with houses, provision is also made for suitable and sufficient facilities such as leisure and sports.

"This project is not about detracting from the existing sports clubs but working with them to ensure the needs of the current and future residents are all catered for."

Plans for the pavilion see the ground floor used for changing rooms, sports club facilities, lockers, a treatment room and showers.

Upstairs would be home to a function room with kitchen and bar to accommodate up to 150 guests.

Cllr Reynolds added: "Although it is no secret that this will largely incorporate the provision of a new purpose-built sports pavilion, this is the first time that people will be able to see what that amounts to.

"Therefore, we would encourage as many people as possible to come along and see just what the next stage of this project will look like."

A formal planning application for the second phase of the plans will be submitted in the spring, and is expected to be decided in the summer.

If approved, work on the site could begin in the autumn and completed in spring 2016.

Next Tuesday's event will run from 2pm until 6pm.

Henley fourth-best nationally for employment

THE rate of unemployment in the Henley constituency is the fourth lowest in the country, latest figures released by the House of Commons Library have revealed.

In January there were 278 people claiming Jobseeker's Allowance – a rate of 0.6 per cent of the economically active population aged between 16 and 64.

This is 173 people lower than in January 2014, and seven less than in December.

The number of young people without a job has also fallen to 35.

John Howell, MP for Henley, said: "This is very good news and represents another month when the constituency is the envy of the country.

He continued: "I have always said that we should carry on with our reforms and reduce unemployment.

"Having the security of a regular income through employment is the best way to improve the economy for everyone."

As well as covering Henley, the constituency also includes Thame, Chinnor, Berinsfield, Benson and Sandford.

Depsite the improvement in employment, Henley dropped a place after previously holding third in the table released for December.

Welsh players put through their paces at Brize Norton

• Tom May at the controls of the C-130 Hercules at RAF Brize Norton earlier this week

LONDON Welsh squad players were treated to a tour of RAF Brize Norton on Monday to try their hand at parachute training and have a ride in a Hercules.

Head coach Justin Burnell, assistant coach Matthew Ferguson and players Tom May, Piri Weepu, Eddie Aholelei and Josh McNally all took part in the visit.

The players had a go at the parachute flight simulator, which is designed to simulate the effect of jumping out of a plane from 6,000 feet.

Team captain Tom May performed the best as he landed just 16 feet from the target.

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

He said: "The simulator was awesome, 16 feet away wasn't too bad – better than the 14,000 feet one of the lads ended up away from the target!"

After their simulator work, the squad then took part in rugby training with the Brize Buccaneers.

And in the afternoon the players got to experience a ride in a C-130 Hercules aircraft over the skies of Oxfordshire.

For Josh McNally, who is a serving member of the RAF at Brize Norton, it was a chance to show his team-mates around his place of work.

He said: "To bring some of the lads from Welsh here has been really good.

"It was nice to be able to give them an insight into military life and the way things run here and I think they really enjoyed it.

"When we did the flight simulators everyone thinks that because I'm in the RAF I'm going to be good at it, but I'd never done anything like that in my life. It was a good laugh though."

The players had been shown around the camp by Squadron Leader Stuart Wright.

He said: "This was a great opportunity to further the links being forged between RAF Brize Norton and London Welsh.

"The coaching session was fantastic, with Matt Ferguson putting the forwards through their paces on the scrum machine.

"It was nice to be able to offer the players and staff of London Welsh something a bit different to their usual routine and this has helped to cement the partnership between London Welsh and the RAF."

Streamlining cancer treatment

CANCER is rare in children, but it is still the biggest cause of death in children and teenagers in the UK.

Children's cancers are also very biologically different from cancers in adults, and research into childhood cancers is limited because of the relatively small numbers of cases.

However, our area is jam packed with first-class research facilities and world leading experts doing vital work on ground-breaking ways to prevent the often life-long consequences of cancer treatments.

This is the research that we must fund but also enable by simplifying unnecessary bureaucratic barriers if we are to prevent, control and cure this devastating disease.

Many will be aware of the sad case of Skye Hall from Abingdon, who died last year after being diagnosed with Metastic Medulloblastoma - a very rare form of brain tumour.

Skye's family were devastated when the treatment that helped to control the cancer actually made Skye sicker.

It is right that there is significant investment in cancer research locally and nationally, but funding alone is not enough.

We have to ensure that bureaucracy never gets in the way of providing the best possible care for any patient.

In Skye's case it became apparent that data collection for non-clinical trials is limited, meaning doctors are having to make decisions on patient care without being informed of the side effects.

This is an unacceptable situation that must be rectified so we can make the advances in vital treatments so urgently needed.

Jazz group to stage tribute show in Peter's honour

A JAZZ band is paying tribute to its former group member from Headington by staging a concert in his honour to raise money for Blind Veterans UK.

Peter Mayhew died in November aged 86, having been one of the founding members of the BBO Big Band in 1986.

The band has raised more than £345,000 for charity in the 29 years it has been running, and are staging a special concert in Marlow, Buckinghamshire, tonight in Peter's memory.

• Peter Mayhew

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

Peter suffered from sight loss in later life, so the band have selected Blind Veterans UK as their chosen charity for the evening.

Hilary Spiers, a member of the band, said: "As a founder member of the BBO Big Band, Peter played a massive part in raising the money for charity.

"He spoke so highly of Blind Veterans UK so we wanted the money raised from this concert to support them."

The concert is being held at The Royal British Legion on Station Approach.

It will be attended by John Cantwell, a friend of Peter's who also receives support from Blind Veterans UK and runs one of the charity's lunch clubs which Peter attended.

He said: "Peter loved playing with this band so much and this concert will be a fitting tribute to a great man."

It starts at 8.15pm.

School unveils science centre art piece

A THREE-STOREY tall artwork reaching 10m in height has been commissioned by Abingdon School to be the centrepiece of their new science centre, which is due to open later this year.

Sculptor Matthew Lane Sanderson has designed the piece, which will weigh over a ton when completed.

The sculpture will rise through the stairwell, starting with biology at the bottom before moving up to physics and chemistry to correspond with each floor that the subject is located on.

Mr Sanderson said: "I hope all who visit the science centre may enjoy both the visual and cerebral challenge presented for years to come.

"It is my aim, not merely to decorate a building, but to inspire many generations of pupils to take up the challenges of science at Abingdon."

Felicity Lusk, head of Abingdon School, added: "It is very rare and a very special opportunity to be able to create something truly beautiful that will be a legacy to the school and become part of Abingdon's remarkable history.

She continued: "It will be an inspiration to all who see it."

Pupils will be involved in the creation of the sculpture at the school.

Dyspraxic children get bike riding help

YOUNGSTERS who have difficulty with co-ordination and balance have been taught how to ride a bike following lessons with Oxfordshire's Fire and Rescue Service.

Twelve children with dyspraxia and special needs spent their half-term with fire fighters and road safety experts in Abingdon learning how to ride independently.

They took part in five one-hour sessions at Abingdon and Witney College, before showing off their skills to their parents at the campus last Friday.

Wendy Jennings, one of the road safety officers, said: "The children started off the course by learning to put a cycle helmet on correctly and they then gain confidence at every stage of the training.

"By the end of the training the aim is for all children to be able to pedal and stop their bicycle unaided.

"It may sound easy to most people but to a child with co-ordination and balance problems learning to ride is really a big achievement.

"The course leads to happy children who never thought that they would be able to ride a bicycle."

By Adam Flinn
adam@taylornewspapers.co.uk

This is the seventh time that the course has been run since it was first introduced in 2012.

Kathryn West's six-year-old son Jacob took part in the sessions.

She said: "He enjoyed it. He didn't quite get to the cycling on his own stage, but to be honest even getting on a bike was something for him.

"He's getting on his bike, rolling along and wanting to pedal, but he's nearly there and this has definitely helped him."

Rodney Rose, deputy leader of Oxfordshire County Council, said: "The council's Fire and Rescue Service works with all sorts of people to help make Oxfordshire as safe as possible.

"This is another example of positive interaction with children to help build their confidence whilst making them safer on the road.

"I would like to congratulate every child that has taken this course and I hope the skills they have learnt will hold them in good stead for the future."

The Mayor of Wallingford

Wallingford's upcoming plans

EVEN though we have an election in May we cannot wait for a new council to begin planning for key events, so we are starting to make plans for the next municipal year.

The estimates for next year have been approved and our precept will be increased by 2.3 per cent RPI.

We never take a decision to increase our precept lightly, and this year we spent more time than ever before reviewing our budget.

Magna Carta and the anniversary of the sealing 800 years ago will be celebrated at the Wallingford Museum when it opens for the 2015 summer season with the exhibition, 'Magna Carta and all that'.

Arrangements for a Civil War re-enactment in June are progressing.

We also like to recognise those who have made a contribution to our community.

At our council meeting we presented two certificates - the first to Julie Sharp, who was a personal assistant to seven town clerks and secretary to 28 mayors during her 40 years of employment by Wallingford Town Council, and the second to Rose Sutton to mark her hard work and support to the annual carnival committee for the last 20 years.

In May there will be an election for those who make up the council, and we need more people to come forward to support local government.

It is important that councillors have a broad range of skills and life experience.

WIN tickets to see The Audience in London's West End

WIN tickets to see Kristin Scott Thomas in a new version of Peter Morgan's smash-hit play, directed by Stephen Daldry. The critically acclaimed production returns to the West End for a limited season from 21 April 2015.

For sixty years Elizabeth II has met each of her twelve Prime Ministers in a weekly audience at Buckingham Palace – a meeting like no other in British public life – it is private. Both parties have an unspoken agreement never to repeat what is said. Not even to their spouses.

The Audience breaks this contract of silence – and imagines a series of pivotal meetings between the Downing Street incumbents and their Queen. From Churchill to Cameron, each Prime Minister has used these private conversations as a sounding board and a confessional – sometimes intimate, sometimes explosive.

Closing date:
Friday, April 10, 2015

We have two pairs of tickets for this amazing production and if you want to be in with a chance of winning a pair all you have to do is answer this simple question:

Q: At which London theatre will The Audience be performed?

For more information and to buy tickets to the show please visit: www.TheAudiencePlay.com

Terms And Conditions.

All elements of the prize are strictly subject to availability and are non-transferable. All prize elements must be redeemed on the same date. Any additional expenses incurred over and above the prize element must be covered by the winner. The cost of travel is not included in the prize.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

The world of Stephen

AWARD winning stand-up comedian Stephen K Amos will bring his sophisticated presence to The Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot tomorrow evening, February 27.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The funnyman, who recently performed at The Theatre Chipping Norton, comes to the Station Road venue with his 'Welcome to my World' tour, which began in September last year and finishes at the start of March.

"I have never appeared at The Cornerstone in Didcot before, so hopefully it won't be like a first date," he said.

"You know, awkward and stifled chat, but like new friends ready to play and have a sleep over.

"The audience can totally expect raucous belly laughs - it's a comedy show, not a lecture and who knows, by the end I may be elected the new mayor."

A familiar face in the comedy circuit, Stephen has won many awards throughout his career.

However, the comic said that he had originally had plans to enter another line of work before falling into comedy.

"I fell into this profession by pure accident," he said.

"I was on the path to becoming a barrister when on a night out in New York City, a young lady I met told me I was funny and invited me to compere her comedy show.

"As we know women are never wrong - I took her advice and gave it a go.

"Anyone who does a job they genuinely enjoy and love will find it a pleasure to do so."

Tickets cost from £15.50, and the show is suitable for anyone over the age of 16. Visit cornerstone-arts.org for more details or to book.

Milton Jones

ONE-LINER and pun genius Milton Jones will be at The New Theatre Oxford on Sunday, March 1.

The 50-year-old, who regularly appears on comedy panel show 'Mock the Week', comes to the George Street theatre as part of his 'Milton Jones: Temple of Daft' tour.

It starts at 8pm.

Gina Yashere

FUNNY woman Gina Yashere will be at the Oxford Playhouse on March 5 as part of her 'Laugh Riot' tour.

The 40-year-old is known for appearing in Lenny Henry's sketch show in 2003 and 2004.

Tickets for the Beaumont Street gig cost £18.50, which starts at 7.30pm.

Call 01865 305305 for further details.

Book night

THE Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot will host a book night next Tuesday, March 3.

Bookworms can meet up at the Station Road venue to discuss about what titles they have been getting into recently.

This is a free event that will begin at 7.30pm.

"Remarkably compelling, amazingly detailed and always humorous"

A tale of two jobs

ONE Man, Two Guvnors, the comedy part-improvised story of a man holding down two jobs, will be at The New Theatre Oxford until February 28.

Set in 1960s Brighton, the story follows an easily confused Francis Henshall becoming separately employed by two men.

And Francis must keep the two bosses from meeting in order to avoid each of them learning that he is also working for someone else.

Shaun Williamson, who plays gangster Charlie Clench in the production, is looking forward to the performances.

He said: "We have our own band called The Craze and when the audience come in, they will be greeted with a skiffle concert which is all very 1950s/60's music.

"Also, in between every scene, one of the cast members comes out and performs a little number which is again accompanied by The Craze, so it's a very musical play and different to what people have seen before."

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

The 49-year old, who is famous for playing Barry Evans in EastEnders from 1994 to 2004, added that he still gets called by his name in the soap on a daily basis.

"Every day I get called Barry instead of Shaun!" he said.

"But I'm very grateful and I hope I never stop becoming grateful for it because it gave me so much.

"It can be a millstone around your neck but in this business you're better off being known for something than nothing."

Free microchipping with Dogs Trust

DOGS TRUST, formerly known as the National Canine Defence League, is an animal welfare charity and humane society in the United Kingdom which specialises in the well-being of dogs.

The charity rehabilitates and finds new homes for dogs which have been abandoned or given up by their owners. People are encouraged to sponsor a dog for at least £1 a week, even if they are not able to rehome the dog. It also runs microchipping and neutering schemes in the United Kingdom and abroad, in order to reduce the number of unwanted litters of puppies and stray dogs put to sleep by other organisations.

Dogs Trust has over 100 rehoming centres across the UK, and its first international rehoming centre opened in November 2009 in Dublin. The charity claims never to put a healthy dog to sleep.

History

The National Canine Defence League (NCDL) was founded in 1891 at a meeting during the first Crufts show chaired by Lady Gertrude Stock. The NCDL campaigned against vivisection, unnecessary muzzling and prolonged chaining, as well as providing care for stray dogs. It also campaigned against cruel treatment of dogs by railway companies, who often refused to provide water for dogs. More unusually, in the 1920s, it provided AA wardens with pistols. This was because dogs and other animals were often involved in car accidents, and the pistols were provided to allow the wardens to euthanise the animal as a last resort in the worst cases. In 1957, the NCDL campaigned against the use of the Russian space dogs in space flight, organising a minute's silence in honour of Laika, who died in orbit from overheating and stress. In 2003, the NCDL was rebranded as Dogs Trust.

Slogans

The charity is best known for its slogan "A Dog is for Life, not just for Christmas", which is used either in full or shortened to "A Dog is for Life" in advertising. The phrase was created to reduce the number of dogs which are abandoned as unwanted by Clarissa Baldwin, the former Chief Executive of the charity. The slogan is a registered trademark. More recently it has adopted another slogan: "Dogs Trust Never Put a Healthy Dog Down".

Rehoming

Dogs Trust tries to rehome most dogs which it cares for and it runs 18 rehoming centres across the UK and Ireland, as well as two large mobile rehoming units known as Dogmobiles. These are large vehicles fitted with air conditioned kennels and are specially designed to tour the local area, carrying a small number of dogs from nearby rehoming centres that are desperately seeking new homes.

Dogs Trust never euthanises healthy dogs, however some dogs may have had a particularly bad start in life and would not be happy living in a normal home environment. The charity takes care of these dogs under its popular Sponsor a Dog scheme.

They have also created a sanctuary where selected dogs can live together free from excessive human contact.

At the beginning of June 2012, the charity opened its eighteenth UK rehoming centre in Leicestershire. Dogs Trust Loughborough aims to be the greenest animal rescue centre in the world. The centre runs on renewable energy from its biomass boiler, green roofs, under-floor heating, solar thermal panels, photovoltaic panels and a rainwater recycling system. The project will be constructed with the aim to achieve BREEAM (BRE Environment Assessment Method) outstanding classification and the highest levels of sustainability. The charity says the facilities will significantly reduce running costs.

Campaigns

Dogs Trust has campaigned against docking of tails and unnecessary euthanasia, such as that carried out on foxhounds after fox hunting was banned by the Hunting Act 2004. It also offers free neutering services in certain poorer countries and runs international training programmes for other animal welfare charities with the aim of reducing feral populations.

The three folk musketeers

THE musical trio of John McCusker, Michael McGoldrick and John Doyle are performing at the Nettlebed Folk Club near Wallingford on Monday, March 2.

With McCusker on the fiddle, Doyle on guitar and vocals and McGoldrick on the flute, whistles and uilleann pipes, expect a night of sheer brilliance as all three musicians are members of the BBC Transatlantic Sessions.

"We have performed there many times with different folk over the years," John McCusker told the Guardian.

"It's a brilliant gig for many reasons; it's always has an audience full of people who really love folk music and it's run by people who work incredibly hard to bring great music to the club - we always look forward to playing there."

He added: "The audience can expect lots of songs, tunes and some bad jokes!

"The three of us don't see each other during the year very often as we are all busy playing with other people, so when we get together for this tour we really look forward to it."

John's musical journey started at the age of seven when his mother encouraged him to play the fiddle.

By James Richings
jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

By his mid-teens, the musician was in local youth orchestras and ceilidh bands before forming his own group 'Parcel O'Rogues' when he was 14.

A couple of years later, he gave up a place at the Royal Scottish Academy to be a member of the music group 'Battlefield Band', where he was a member for over 11 years.

Since then, the musician has been nominated and won many awards, with some describing the 41-year-old as one of the best fiddle players in the world.

"I didn't think I'd be this successful," John said.

"When I first started playing, the folk music scene was very different to what it is now.

"You had to travel to find like-minded people playing this funny music, so the idea of doing it for your job was never something I thought I would get the chance to do."

And the 41-year old from Scotland revealed what he has planned for when the shows are over.

"I have two daughters; Molly Mae who is four and Jessica Rose who is four months, so when I get home they find me plenty of stuff to do to keep me busy!

"I love being on the road but being home and watching movies with my wife and the girls is the best thing in the world."

Doors open at 8pm, with the gig starting at £15.

Call 01628 636620 for more information about the show.

"Probably the most entertaining group to come out of the 60's and 70's. Their musicianship,their harmonies and of course their humour makes them what their peers call them 'The Guvnors". They are supremely talented, a showbiz phenomenon and the best tonic the N.H.S. could give the population. They are the only group to have toured with the Beatles and twice with the Rolling Stones. A show not to be missed.

Latest incarnation of the Corsa comes with a wide variety of new features to choose from

Vauxhall release new model

FOLLOWING the success of recent Vauxhall Corsas, the manufacturer has announced that the latest Corsa VXR will encounter new modifications when it hits show rooms this May in the UK.

With an impressive 0-60mph in 6.5 seconds and a top speed of 143mph, the VXR will be able to produce 245Nm of torque from lower revs (between 1,900rpm and 5,800rpm, compared with 2,250rpm to 5,500rpm for the outgoing Nürburgring and ClubSport models).

This makes the VXR a potent performer between 50 and 75mph, which it can dispatch in just 6.6 seconds in fifth gear.

All the power is delivered to the front wheels via a second-generation six-speed transmission with a short, fluid gear change.

For the first time, Vauxhall is offering a two-stage switchable electronic stability programme (ESP) and traction control (TC) with the new Corsa VXR model.

REVIEW: Vauxhall Corsa VXR

By James Richings

In competition mode, the traction control is inactive, while the ESP is relaxed to allow less intervention.

For track use, the ESP can be fully disabled.

New modifications on this VXR include standard bi-xenon lighting and a choice of six exterior colours, which help the new Corsa VXR stand out in its class.

The interior also shows an impressive kit to the driver.

With standard Recaro seats, a leather, flat-bottomed steering wheel, sports pedals, heated front windscreen and Intellilink connectivity for Apple iOS and Android smartphones, the latest Vauxhall Corsa VXR is something to show off.

A small scoop is located below the bonnet and side-sill extensions manage to help enhance the Corsa VXR's performance credentials further still.

At the rear, a spoiler provides meaningful downforce over the back axle, and twin Remus exhaust pipes further distinguish it from regular Corsas.

Also, Vauxhall is offering an optional performance package, which includes certain features previously seen in the outgoing Nürburgring and ClubSport models.

Highlights on the new model include a Drexler limited-slip differential, larger 330mm-diameter Brembo front brake discs, 18-inch alloy wheels, and more focused FSD damper settings.

For further information about the latest Vauxhall Corsa VXR, which has been scheduled for release this May, visit the company's website: vauxhall.co.uk.

Disastrous start costs London Welsh again

Early 27-point deficit leads to defeat against Gloucester

By Matthew Bruce
news@taylornewspapers.co.uk

LONDON Welsh paid the price for a poor start as they were beaten 48-10 away to Gloucester in the Aviva Premiership on Saturday.

The Exiles shipped 27 points in as many minutes, but rallied to prevent a repeat of the colossal defeats meted out to them by Wasps and Saracens earlier in the season.

Ross Moriarty, Charlie Sharples and Matt Kvesic all powered over for the hosts during a devastating opening spell, to which the Exiles had no answer.

Welsh did hit back after the break as Carl Kirwan crossed to reduce the deficit, but they faded again late in the game.

Two superb tries from Henry Purdy left the visitors reeling before Sila Puafisi dived over to complete another heavy beating for Welsh.

Despite the defeat, head coach Justin Burnell was full of praise for his side's battling qualities.

He said: "I thought we did compete today.

"I didn't think it was as one-sided as it was last week (vs Sale Sharks).

"I thought we were more than in the game.

"It's a totally different changing room today.

"Last week they were distraught but today we came out and were in a fight, and that's what London Welsh is about."

The Exiles remain bottom of the Premiership table with just one point from their 15 league games.

City's goalie nightmare

GOALKEEPER Ali Aksoy became the fourth Oxford City goalkeeper to be sent off in six games during their 4-3 Conference North defeat to Tamworth on Saturday.

Both regular goalkeepers, Salva de la Cruz and Mark Scott, were suspended for the trip to Staffordshire, forcing City boss Justin Merritt to recruit Aksoy.

But his luck was also out when, just three minutes into the second half and with City leading 3-2, he was also dismissed for a foul on Tamworth's Dave Hibbert.

Midfielder Declan Benjamin was forced to go in goal for a third time this season and the hosts went on to take victory, with second-half goals from Hibbert and Leon Mettam, adding to early headed goals from Shane Clarke and Josh Sampson.

Adi Yussuf, Lee Henderson and Tom Winters' goals ultimately proved in vain for City.

Regular keeper De La Cruz was back from his suspension for Tuesday's trip to Chorley, while Scott was on the bench as City picked up a hard-earned 1-1 draw.

They trailed to a James Dean header before Henderson netted his second goal in two games with 10 minutes left to give City a point.

Weepu on his way out

Former All Black to leave London Welsh this summer with move to French side Oyonnax

PIRI Weepu will leave London Welsh at the end of the season for French Top 14 side Oyonnax.

The former World Cup-winning All Black scrum half made a surprise move to the Exiles shortly before the start of the 2014-15 Aviva Premiership season, just six months after suffering a career-threatening stroke.

Although Weepu initially signed a two-year deal with the Exiles, it included a release clause in the event of relegation from the Premiership.

And following their 25th defeat of the season at Gloucester on Saturday, top-flight survival is looking increasingly unlikely.

Weepu has now agreed a two-year deal with the French side, who currently sit in eighth place in the Top 14.

Other high-profile players who have already announced their intention to leave the Exiles at the end of the season include No 8 Opeti Fonua and flanker Carl Kirwan.

Fonua will join Leicester Tigers, while Kirwan has agreed a deal with current Championship leaders Worcester Warriors, who themselves suffered Premiership relegation last season.

Both Fonua and Weepu were among 26 new signings announced by the Exiles before the start of the season following their promotion from the Championship.

MacDonald's double lifts U's

ALEX MacDonald was delighted to get a first win under his belt since signing for Oxford United from Burton Albion as the U's beat fellow strugglers Mansfield Town 3-0 at the Kassam Stadium on Saturday.

MacDonald scored his first goals for the club in the win, netting twice to put United two goals ahead.

Top scorer Danny Hylton then sealed the victory from the penalty spot.

It was an important personal milestone for MacDonald, but the most pleasing aspect for him was claiming a vital victory as the U's look to climb away from danger at the bottom of the League Two table.

He said: "It looked like a relegation fight, but we got the goal and from then on we never looked like we were going to concede after that.

"The boys are buzzing, everyone's buzzing, so it was just a massive weight off our shoulders.

He continued: "It's been on our minds all week and we've trained well, but we're by no means safe.

"We need to take that on to next Saturday now and keep it going."

Head coach Michael Appleton praised his side's performance in difficult conditions at the Kassam on Saturday afternoon.

"It was a really scrappy game and obviously the pitch isn't really conducive to a passing game," he said.

"But I thought we stuck at it and we did the basics really well.

"We headed, we tackled, we stopped crosses and we stopped shots and we had a little bit of quality when we needed it in the final third."

Oxford travel to in-form Portsmouth on Saturday looking to make it back-to-back wins in the league for the first time since October.

The hosts are unbeaten in their previous six matches, but Appleton is relishing the clash with his former club.

He added: "Portsmouth is not an easy place to go, but I'd imagine we'll have a few down there and it will be one hell of a game and atmosphere.

"We'll be looking forward to it and we'll have a good week now to rest and recoup and prepare for what's going to be a difficult game."

Hat-trick hero Ingram saves Ardley in extra time

LUKE Ingram struck three times as Ardley United staged a remarkable comeback to win 6-3 after extra time at Thatcham Town in the Hellenic League Bluefin Challenge Cup third round on Saturday.

Two goals from Yashwa Romeo and a third from Marc Thompson appeared to be enough to send the home side through, despite efforts from Luke and Conor Ingram.

But a last-minute equaliser from Luke Ingram forced extra time and Ardley ran away with it in the additional period, as Ingram completed his treble alongside goals from Troy Bryan and Ricky Johnson.

It was a poor week for Thame United in the Premier Division with a 1-0 defeat at struggling Brimscombe & Thrupp on Saturday, followed by a 2-0 reverse at home to Thatcham Town on Tuesday.

Milton United were also held to a 0-0 draw at home to Shrivenham on Saturday.

Stars shine with vital victory over Solent Devils

OXFORD City Stars picked up a vital win in their National Ice Hockey League 1 fight for survival as they beat Solent Devils 5-4 on Sunday.

Nick Oliver and Josh Florey each scored twice and Josh Oliver added another to complete the crucial victory.

Florey scored first to give Stars the advantage, although Andrew Magee was soon able to equalise for the Devils.

Josh Oliver was next on the scoresheet, but once again the Devils levelled, this time through Mitchell Murray to make the score 2-2 going into the final period.

Florey put Stars back ahead, before Nick Oliver increased their advantage before George Norcliffe pegged them back to just a one-goal lead.

Ninety seconds later Devils were level again as Drew Campbell scored, but Nick Oliver was Oxford's hero as he grabbed the winner for Stars in the final moments of the match.

The win keeps Stars two points clear of bottom side Cardiff Devils, and are within four of eighth-placed London Raiders.

Only six games of the season remain, and Stars are back in action this Saturday as they host Bracknell Hornets.

Lotus sets the pace at Catalunya test

LOTUS F1 were the star performers at last week's pre-season test in Barcelona, as the Enstone-based team led the way on three of the four days.

Maldonado was top on Thursday and Saturday, while Grosjean was fastest on Sunday.

The pair, along with reserve driver Jolyon Palmer, completed 361 laps over the four days

Lotus' technical director Nick Chester said: "We've enjoyed a solid first test in Barcelona with good reliability and encouraging performance.

He continued: "The biggest positive we have seen so far is the reliability of the car which is enabling us to push along with our evaluations."

Meanwhile, Williams Martini Racing completed more than 400 laps over the course of the test.

Felipe Massa was fastest for the Grove-based squad, ending the day in third place on Friday.

Valtteri Bottas managed to come fifth on Sunday, while reserve driver Susie Wolff was eighth on the Thursday.

Rod Nelson, Williams' chief test and support engineer, said: "Throughout the whole test we have gathered a lot of data and are prepared for the final test."

The last test starts today.

Harlequins condemned to another league defeat

OXFORD Harlequins suffered another defeat on Saturday as they were comfortably beaten 35-19 by Old Patesians.

The result marked 'Quins 13th loss of the season in the National League 3 South West, in what has proved a difficult year for the Oxford side.

They currently sit 12th in the standings with 32 points, four behind next-placed Old Redcliffians.

And it is the Redcliffians that 'Quins face in their next match on Saturday.

Elsewhere, Witney RFC recorded their seventh consecutive win after a narrow 18-15 victory over Northamptonshire-based Towcestrians.

The West Oxfordshire side are now up to fifth in the South West 1 East standings following their impressive winning streak, and are just two points behind Swindon in fourth.

But there was disappointment for Grove in the same league, as they lost 20-17 away to Devizes.

They sit ninth in the standings with 42 points, level with Reading in 10th and six behind eighth-placed Trowbridge.

And this Saturday sees Grove host Witney in their Oxfordshire derby match, which saw the latter victorious in their previous meeting back in November.

Hawks lose

HOCKEY: Oxford Hawks were narrowly defeated by the league leaders on Saturday, as they lost 3-2 away to Old Georgians.

Kit Cutter and Will Phillips were on the scoresheet for Hawks, but it wasn't enough to pick up an unlikely win against the South Hockey League Premier Division pacesetters.

And in the same league, Oxford University were able to pick up a draw with Spencer, following goals from James Arch and Joe Foster.

Hawks face Lewes while University host Staines in their next matches on Saturday.

Smith sixth

MOTOGP: Oxford motorbike ace Bradley Smith set the sixth-fastest time at preseason testing in Malaysia yesterday.

His time of 1:59.883 was within a second of reigning champion Marc Marquez, who ended the session fastest.

The first race of the season proper is on March 29 at the Losail circuit in Qatar.

Stevens signed

FORMULA ONE: Manor Marussia, who last season were based in Banbury, have announced Will Stevens as their first driver as they attempt to make the grid for the 2015 season.

Stevens drove for Caterham in a one-off appearance at Abu Dhabi last year, finishing the race in 17th.

The team came out of administration last week, and are hoping to use an updated version of their 2014 car for the coming year.

DIDCOT UPBEAT DESPITE WINLESS STREAK

Joint manager Ian Concannon backs his side to turn around their recent poor form

By Matthew Bruce
news@taylornewspapers.co.uk

DIDCOT Town joint manager Ian Concannon said he is confident his side's poor run of form will soon come to an end.

The Railwaymen's winless run stretched to nine matches with a 2-2 draw at home to Tiverton Town.

Didcot were on top for most of the match but found themselves behind twice to two goals from Jamie Mudge.

Lance Williams levelled the first time, but the hosts needed the intervention of substitute Ryan Brooks to prevent another defeat as the striker headed home a 92nd-minute equaliser.

Concannon hailed his side's spirit to keep pushing to the end of the match.

He said: "It shows we will keep going right until the death.

"Unfortunately, Saturday actually felt more like we'd been beaten because we were the totally dominant team.

"We class it as more of a defeat, because we should have won the game.

Concannon continued: "Everyone was really disappointed after the game and there were some heated exchanges, but that's what we want to see from our players because it shows we care."

Town entertain Southern League Division 1 South & West leaders Merthyr Town on Saturday.

The visitors are coming off the back of a 2-1 loss to Bridgwater Town - just their third league defeat of the season - and Concannon is expecting a big performance from his side at the weekend.

"If we are to get anything from the game on Saturday we know we'll have to be at our very best," he said.

"If we're going to get our season back on track, we need to do it this weekend.

"On our day we can beat anybody in this league, but equally if we don't perform we can be beaten by anyone."
